The program is helping me to be proactive "Creating a business by design, not by default". I would encourage anyone who is considering business training to look at the course.

— Alison Potter,
Poowong North

Being exposed to a different calibre of people and business expertise highlighted the skills that I haven't accessed in my business up until now. I've made a commitment to seek more professional advice.

— Andrew Tyler, Tongala

When I heard in the course "You need to earn the right to grow", it hit hard. The message that you need to be profitable where you are before you expand is an important one.

— Cath Jenkins,
South Purrumbete
